

ANCILLARY MEETING PROGRAM GUIDE

Policies • Procedures • Terms of Participation

NANETS
NORTH AMERICAN NEUROENDOCRINE TUMOR SOCIETY

2026 NANETS Ancillary Meeting Program Guide

NANETS 2026 Annual Multidisciplinary NET Medical Symposium

November 5–7, 2026

JW Marriott Las Vegas Resort & Spa

Las Vegas, Nevada

Welcome

Purpose

The NANETS Ancillary Meeting Program provides approved Symposium sponsors with the opportunity to host professional meetings in conjunction with the 2026 NANETS Annual Multidisciplinary NET Medical Symposium.

Designed to complement the official Symposium experience, the program provides a structured process for requesting meeting space while preserving the educational integrity of the meeting and maximizing value for attendees, faculty, and industry partners.

NANETS Philosophy

NANETS values the important role our industry partners play in advancing education and innovation in neuroendocrine tumor care. The Ancillary Meeting Program has been developed to provide meaningful engagement opportunities while preserving the integrity of the official Symposium program and the overall attendee experience.

Program Overview

The Ancillary Meeting Program is available exclusively to confirmed 2026 Symposium sponsors.

Organizations may request meeting space for a variety of professional activities, including advisory boards, investigator meetings, internal planning sessions, and other approved business meetings.

All requests are reviewed individually by NANETS before meeting space is assigned.

Submission of an application does not guarantee approval or assignment of meeting space.

Eligibility

Ancillary meeting space is available to:

- Confirmed 2026 Symposium sponsors
- Industry partners
- Nonprofit organizations
- Other organizations approved by NANETS

Note: Organizations that have not secured a Symposium sponsorship must first purchase an eligible sponsorship opportunity before submitting an Ancillary Meeting Application.

Application & Approval Process

Meeting requests will be reviewed in the order received; however, room assignments will be based on availability, meeting requirements, and alignment with NANETS policies.

Submission of an application does not guarantee approval or assignment of a specific meeting room.

Application Process

1. Submit an Ancillary Meeting Application.
2. NANETS reviews the meeting request.
3. Meeting space is assigned based on meeting requirements and available inventory.
4. An invoice is issued.
5. Upon payment, NANETS introduces the meeting organizer to the JW Marriott Event Planning Team to coordinate all meeting logistics.

NANETS reserves the right to approve, deny, modify, or reassign meeting requests as necessary to support the successful operation of the Symposium.

Approved Meeting Types

The Ancillary Meeting Program supports a variety of professional meetings, including:

- Advisory Boards
 - Investigator Meetings
 - Clinical Trial Planning Meetings
 - Internal Company Meetings
 - Faculty Working Meetings
 - Research Planning Meetings
 - Advocacy Organization Meetings
 - Other professional meetings approved by NANETS
-

Protected Programming Periods

To preserve attendance at the official NANETS educational program and industry-sponsored satellite symposia, formal advisory boards and other organized multi-participant meetings may not be conducted during protected programming periods.

Protected programming periods include:

- Official NANETS educational sessions
 - Industry-sponsored breakfast satellite symposia
 - Industry-sponsored lunch satellite symposia
 - Official NANETS networking receptions and events
-

Formal Meeting Availability

Wednesday

Formal advisory boards and other organized meetings may be conducted throughout the day.

Sponsors intending to invite NANETS leadership or Board members should be aware that many officers and members of the Board of Directors may have limited availability during the following times:

- 4:00 PM – 6:00 PM: Industry Partner Meetings with the NANETS Board of Directors
- 6:00 PM – 7:00 PM: NANETS Officers Debrief Meeting

Organizations planning to include NANETS leadership in their meetings are encouraged to consider these commitments when selecting their meeting time.

Thursday & Friday

Formal advisory boards and other organized meetings may only be conducted following the conclusion of the official NANETS evening networking reception.

Saturday

Formal advisory boards and organized meetings may be conducted following the conclusion of the Symposium, subject to room availability.

Use of Meeting Rooms During Protected Programming

Organizations renting meeting space may continue utilizing their assigned rooms during protected programming periods for activities that are incidental to participation in the Symposium, including:

- Internal company business meetings
- One-on-one discussions
- Faculty or investigator preparation meetings
- Administrative meetings
- Internal planning sessions
- Other informal business discussions

The following activities are not permitted during protected programming periods:

- Advisory Boards
- Investigator Meetings involving invited external participants
- Focus Groups
- Promotional presentations
- Organized educational sessions
- Any scheduled meeting intended to convene multiple invited attendees in conjunction with the Symposium

NANETS reserves the right to determine whether a proposed or occurring meeting constitutes an organized ancillary meeting subject to these guidelines.

Room Assignment

Meeting organizers may indicate:

- Preferred rental period
- Estimated attendance
- Preferred room configuration

Specific meeting rooms cannot be guaranteed.

Meeting space will be assigned by NANETS based upon:

- Meeting purpose
 - Attendance
 - Room capacity
 - Operational needs
 - Available inventory
-

Hotel Planning

Once a meeting request has been approved and payment has been received, NANETS will introduce the meeting organizer to the JW Marriott Las Vegas Resort & Spa Event Planning Team.

Meeting organizers will work directly with the hotel regarding:

- Food & Beverage
- Audiovisual Services
- Internet
- Room Sets
- Labor
- Décor
- Signage
- Shipping & Receiving
- Electrical
- Other venue-related services

NANETS does not coordinate hotel logistics on behalf of meeting organizers.

Payment

Following approval of an Ancillary Meeting Application, NANETS will issue an invoice.

Meeting space is not confirmed until payment has been received.

Organizations are responsible for all hotel-related charges associated with their meeting.

Meeting Organizer Responsibilities

Meeting organizers are responsible for ensuring compliance with:

- All NANETS policies
- JW Marriott policies
- Applicable industry standards and regulations
- Institutional policies governing meeting participation
- Local fire and safety requirements

Meeting organizers are responsible for any damages or extraordinary costs incurred during their meeting.

Publicity & Promotion

Ancillary meetings are independent events and are not official NANETS educational activities.

Meeting organizers may not:

- Represent their meeting as sponsored, endorsed, or accredited by NANETS unless expressly authorized in writing.
- Use the NANETS name or logo in invitations, signage, presentations, or promotional materials without prior written approval.
- Publicly advertise ancillary meetings in a manner that suggests official Symposium programming.

Meeting invitations should clearly identify the meeting organizer.

Changes & Cancellations

Organizations should notify NANETS as soon as possible regarding any requested changes to:

- Meeting date
- Rental period
- Attendance
- Meeting purpose

NANETS reserves the right to modify room assignments when necessary to support the successful operation of the Symposium.

Cancellation requests will be reviewed in accordance with the published Ancillary Meeting cancellation policy.

Program Compliance

Meeting organizers are expected to comply with these guidelines throughout the planning and execution of their meeting.

Failure to comply with these policies may result in:

- Modification or cancellation of the meeting
- Loss of ancillary meeting privileges
- Consideration during future ancillary meeting requests

Interpretation and enforcement of these guidelines shall be at the sole discretion of NANETS.

Program Terms

By participating in the NANETS Ancillary Meeting Program, meeting organizers acknowledge and agree that:

- Participation is subject to review and approval by NANETS.
 - Submission of an application does not guarantee meeting space.
 - Meeting space is not confirmed until payment has been received.
 - Meeting organizers are responsible for all hotel-related costs associated with their meeting.
 - Meeting organizers are responsible for complying with all applicable NANETS policies, hotel policies, and industry regulations.
 - Meeting organizers may not represent their meeting as an official NANETS educational activity.
 - Use of the NANETS name or logo in meeting materials requires prior written approval.
 - NANETS reserves the right to modify room assignments or revoke meeting approval if necessary to support the successful operation of the Symposium.
-

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I request a specific meeting room?

You may indicate your preferred room size or setup; however, NANETS assigns meeting space based on availability and operational needs.

When is my meeting confirmed?

Meeting space is confirmed only after your application has been approved and payment has been received.

Who coordinates catering and audiovisual services?

All hotel-related logistics are coordinated directly with the JW Marriott Event Planning Team.

Can I invite NANETS faculty?

Yes. However, NANETS cannot guarantee the availability or participation of faculty or leadership members.

Can I hold an advisory board during Symposium sessions?

No. Formal advisory boards and other organized multi-participant meetings may not overlap with official Symposium programming or industry-sponsored satellite symposia.

Can nonprofit organizations or advocacy groups request meeting space?

Yes. Approved nonprofit organizations, advocacy groups, and other organizations that are confirmed Symposium sponsors may request meeting space through the Ancillary Meeting Program. All requests are reviewed on an individual basis.

Can I hold an advisory board during Symposium sessions?

No. Formal advisory boards and other organized multi-participant meetings may not overlap with official Symposium programming or industry-sponsored satellite symposia.

Contact Information

North American Neuroendocrine Tumor Society (NANETS)

(718) 283-4783 Text friendly! staff@nanets.net